

Treasury officials and Members of Congress that at long last got the United States engaged in the rescue effort, whose greatest hero is indeed Raoul Wallenberg.

It is thus particularly appropriate for this memorial event to take place on Capitol Hill. It is Congress that for decades has insisted that the foreign policy of the United States must be infused with moral content and it has succeeded. Tom Lantos, who has been witness to the history that we recount today, has been a truly outstanding leader in this effort. We are indebted to him.

TRIBUTE TO STUDENTS OF ALL SAINTS ACADEMY IN BREESE, ILLINOIS

HON. JOHN SHIMKUS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 13, 2002

Mr. SHIMKUS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the students of All Saints Academy in Breese, Illinois, and their important and heartwarming efforts to help those affected by terrorism.

On October 11th, 2001, President Bush made a request of the children of America. He challenged each of them to earn and send in one dollar. This money, sent by the kindness of the children of the United States, will be used to reach out to the unfortunate children in far off Afghanistan.

The students of All Saints heard and met that challenge. I recently received a check for $1,000, made out to America's Fund for Afghan Children—that's more than one dollar for each student in All Saints, and more than our President requested.

The students, parents, faculty, and members of the Breese community should be recognized for this fine effort. The terrorists believed they could accomplish their goals with the murder of American innocents; but the American citizens have responded with aid to the innocents of Afghanistan. Nothing else could better show how utterly Al Qaeda has failed.

Mr. Speaker, as President Bush said in his announcement of the Fund for Afghan Children, "One of the truest weapons that we have against terrorism is to show the world the true strength of character of the American people." The children of All Saints have shown that character, and they deserve our thanks. May God bless them, and may God bless the United States of America.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. ANTHONY D. WEINER

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 13, 2002

Mr. WEINER. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably detained in my District on Tuesday, March 12, 2002, and I would like the RECORD to indicate how I would have voted had I been present.

For rollcall vote No. 53, the bill to expand the class of beneficiaries who may apply for adjustment of status under section 245(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act by extending the deadline for classification petition and labor certification filings, I would have voted "aye."

ENHANCED BORDER SECURITY AND VISA ENTRY REFORM ACT OF 2002

SPEECH OF

HON. SOLOMON P. ORTIZ

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 12, 2002

Mr. ORTIZ. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank Chairman SENSENBRENNER and Ranking Member CONYERS for bringing HR 1885 to the floor today. The issue of border security and the extension of section 245(i) are truly important issues, and I'm glad that they are being addressed. I support HR 1885, the Enhanced Border Security and Visa Entry Reform Act, for many reasons, namely because it insures safety for the people within this country's borders. This bill provides the tools necessary for the U.S. Customs and the Immigration and Naturalization Service to better serve the American people.

The bill also has a provision to extend the border crossing card deadline for residents along the Southwestern border of the United States. This extension will provide a much-needed boost to the economies that have suffered since the tragic attacks of September 11th. After the attacks, Congress stopped work on a stand-alone bill with bipartisan support to extend the deadline for one year to October 1, 2002. With this extension, shop owners that were forced to close their doors after the deadline passed will once again be able to open them. People granted the extension can use their border crossing cards to go to school, to go to work, to go shopping, or to just merely visit their families. They will continue being productive members of society of the border economy.

The Southwestern border, according to a recent U.S. Chamber of Commerce report, has a population of 6.2 million people in the U.S. and approximately 4.3 million people in Mexico. The buying power of border residents is immense and the economy of South Texas depends on their participation in our market place. In my district alone, 75–80% of Brownsville's downtown retail sales normally come from people crossing the border. Since September 11th this number has dropped. This same report also cites the border crossing card deadline as one of the main reasons that fewer people are crossing the border. The economic effects of the attacks in September were bad for the country; they were devastating for the Southwestern border.

The Southwestern border is vitally important to the United States. It is the gateway to the United States from Latin America, it is the port-of-entry for one of our most valued trading partners, and it represents the rich diversity of immigrants on which this country was founded. This bill is an excellent first step in recognizing that fact. Again, I thank Mr. SENSENBRENNER and Mr. CONYERS for their actions.

TRIBUTE TO JEANNE BRADY LORENZ, FIRST ANNUAL GOVERNOR'S UNSUNG HEROINE AWARDS HONOREE

HON. DAVID E. BONIOR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 13, 2002

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize a woman who has dedicated so many years to serving her city and her community, Jeanne Lorenz. Her remarkable achievements have brought so many families and communities together in an effort to educate and promote racial and ethnic justice. As the Michigan Women's Commission held the First Annual Governor's Unsung Heroine Awards, they honored the contributions of women in communities across Michigan whose work has otherwise gone unrecognized. Gathering together on Tuesday, March 5, 2002, the Michigan Women's Commission chose to honor Jeanne Lorenz, a longtime friend and advocate of civil rights and community service.

A leader and an activist all her life, Jeanne Lorenz has lived her life by her principles and has dedicated her life to teaching these principles to others. As an active member of the Interfaith Center for Racial Justice in Macomb County for over 30 years and Secretary of its Executive Board for more than 20 years, her efforts for her community have been truly selfless. Beginning in 1971 with monitoring the local newspapers and courts and organizing a program called Peaceful Schools during anti-bussing demonstrations, Jeanne participated in a wide variety of activities to promote civil rights. As one of the primary cooks for the first few annual Martin Luther King Holiday Celebrations in Macomb County, an event which raised money to purchase books on racial diversity for school libraries, Jeanne was integral in the fight to promote racial understanding in her community. This determination and commitment to civil rights led her to help defuse racial tensions at a local high school at the request of the Lake Shore Schools superintendent. Forming an advisory group to relieve racial tensions, she helped this group later evolve into the Committee for Racial and Ethnic Understanding, a group that provided a forum for communication and sponsored ethnic fairs.

Demonstrating outstanding dedication and commitment throughout the years, Jeanne Lorenz has also been active in community outreach, working in programs that have helped advance her local community. An active member of St. Gertrude's Church, Jeanne served as the first elected female president of the St. Gertrude Parish Council and served on the Christian Service Commission. Using her training as a home economics teacher, Jeanne organized a funeral luncheon program at St. Gertrude's Church in St. Clair Shores and prepares and serves meals periodically with her volunteers at the Salvation Army in Mount Clemens. She also cooks for the McRest Homeless Shelter program at her church and directs the kitchen crew at the Interfaith Care Givers' Annual Spaghetti Fund Raiser. Jeanne Lorenz's crusade to raise the standards of activism and community outreach programs is one that will be remembered by citizens of this community for years to come.
